

A GUIDE TO

Student Engagement Analytics

Understand how your students learn, where they struggle and how you can help them succeed with Student Engagement Analytics.

The Issue

Providing effective, timely support and assistance to students is crucial to ensuring their success in education. However, most institutions lack the actionable insights they need to identify struggling students or provide targeted support.

With data siloed in multiple systems and across departments, staff are unable to act efficiently.

The Challenges

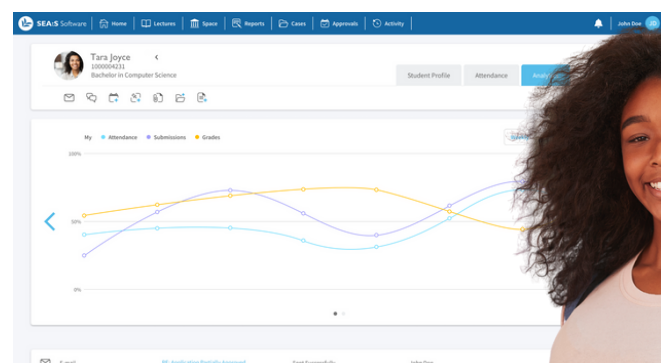

- Connecting multiple campus systems and departments to remove data silos.
- Overwhelming manual student outreach and communications.
- Keeping track of student engagement, progression and success.

The Solution

SEAtS Software Engagement Analytics is the leading student analytics and insights solution in the market that integrates seamlessly with your existing campus systems.

Our innovative platform allows educators to unlock the hidden value of their student data, identify patterns, and proactively support students. Why SEAtS?

- Real-time workflows trigger alerts to student support staff of changes in engagement.
- Use both historical and real-time data to identify pockets of low student engagement.
- Keep students on track to graduate with greater understanding of the common pitfalls and how to avoid them.
- Automate student outreach and send personalised, targeted emails to students who need support,
